"MY SON"

When you were small and we went on long trips you were not happy until I held you,

When you married young and became a dad, you made me proud when you cared for your first born so skillfully and tenderly,

When holidays, and anniversaries, and birthdays would come you are a son who rarely missed bringing daddy "something"

When mama was sick you came often and said, "daddy here is something to help with the cost".

Yes, you have been a caring and loving son.
"I love you, you will always be, "My Son".....

Daddy
